McLAUGHLIN EVIDENCE IN.

Second Trial of the Accused Police Official Drawing to a Close.

COL. JAMES IS SUMMING UP.

Witness Lyons Quotes from His Talk with Complainant Seagrist.

"MY EVIDENCE WON'T CONVICT."

Builder Lennon's Experience with Ward Man Burns Was Ruled Out.

The defense in the trial of Police Inspector William W. McLaughlin rested its case at 3:40 P. M., and after a recess of five minutes Col. James began his summing up.

The senior counsel for the accused official concluded his presentation of the case to the jury at last night's session, and from the drifts of his remarks it was evident that the defense was prepared to make even a more bitter fight for McLaughlin than on his first trial.

Before calling any witnesses Col.
James renewed his customary motions for the dismissal of the indictment against McLaughlin and the discharge of the defendant, all of which Justice Barrett promptly overruled.

Col. James surprised every one in court by calling for Contractor Seagrist as his first witness. He said he wanted to ask him some questions in cross-examination for the purpose of contradiction.

Seagrist was not in the court-room, but Mr. Fox said he was in the building and could be called. Col. James asked him to come forward and he did so.

After telling the jury that he was in the toy business at 129 Crosby street, and had been connected with several banks and other corporations, he said he had known Francis W. Seagrist, Jr., for six years.

Not Sure He Paid the Money.
Q. Was anything said about Seagrist's alleged payment of $50 to McLaughlin?
A. He said he was not sure he paid the money to McLaughlin.

Q. What did he say to that?
A. He said he was not sure he paid the money to McLaughlin.

Q. Did you ever see him?
A. Yes, he was in the toy business at 129 Crosby street.

Witness Lyons quoted from his talk with complainant Seagrist.
Seagrist said he was not sure he paid the money to McLaughlin.

Defenses Rests Its Case.

Justice Barrett sustained the objection, and also ruled out all other questions. The defense then rested its case.

Two Lunatics at Large.

John Moore, thirty-four years old, of 48 Ninth avenue, and Alexander Ferrier, twenty-five years of 304 East 12th street, were arrested today by police men at the Yorkville Court house.
Moore yesterday escaped from the house and a general alarm was sent out by the police.

Invited to See Her Die.

Miss Cloud ready for the summons, but death snatched her.
INDIANAPOLIS, June 7.—During a religious revival recently Miss Mary Cloud, daughter of a farmer residing near this city, became converted. She was a member of the church and was a devoted worshiper.

More Fair Weather.

The weather to-day was generally fair over the entire country, save for cloudy weather and showers over the Northwest. It was slightly cooler over the lake regions and Middle Atlantic states, and but very slight changes elsewhere.

Fire at Preceptor's Theatre.

A slight fire occurred at Preceptor's Theatre, in West Twenty-third street, last night and did $50 damage. It started from a defective electric light wire on the roof. Fortunately the theatre does not hold a large number of people and the audience dispersed at once. The fire was extinguished in a few minutes.

BOHEMANN'S INDIFFERENT.

He Tries to Unravel the Strong Web of Circumstantial Evidence.

Declares He Did Not See Knoop or Seims for Days Before Their Death.

ANNE SEIMS A WITNESS.

The Defense Closed and the Case Probably Will Go to the Jury To-Night.

The trial of John Bohemann, of Hoboken, for the murder of the boys John H. Seims and Henry Knoop by asphyxiating them with illuminating gas in Miller's Hotel, 17 Broadway, Williamsburg, on Feb. 17, is nearing the end.
The trial has been in progress in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Brooklyn, since Monday. Assistant District Attorney Clarke has produced a mass of circumstantial evidence that fixes the guilt on Bohemann. He is a cool, however, and acts like a man confident of acquittal.

NO CHANCE FOR RIOT.

Newly Annexed District to be Properly Policed To-Night.

Inspector McCullough Will Take Fifty Men There.

In Spite of Precautions Chief Con- siders No Trouble.

It was rumored at Police Headquarters this afternoon that an outbreak among the lawless people in the newly an-nexed district, who are dissatisfied with annexation, was expected to-night, and that a squad of mounted men had been detached there by Acting Chief Conlin.

The new district comprises the towns of Westchester, Eastchester and Pelham, which lie southerly of a straight line drawn from the point where the center of the Bronx River meets the middle of the channel between Hunter's and Glen Islands in Long Island Sound, and all that territory lying within the incorporated limits of the village of Wakenfield, which lies northerly of such line.

There are about 20,000 acres in the new annexation, which has a population of about 17,000. It also takes in Morris Park Race-Track and Throg's Neck at the eastern extremity of which stands Ford Schuch's farm.

A further rumor said that the detail of police would ride to the annexed district, and that the police would be ready to take any trouble that might arise.

Late this afternoon a man from Westchester County, whose name has not yet been ascertained, called at Police Headquarters and was shown to Commissioner Clarke. He remained in the office for some time, and then he left.

The request, it was said, was partly brought about through the fact that the authorities of the county had been announced that the police of that county would no longer afford protection to the annexed district.

himself and his sweetheart Lena Huber.
He said the girl was in Germany, and that he was waiting for her to come to New York.

Mrs. Kate Byrnes, the chambermaid, was asked by Mr. Clarke to stand up.
Bohemann said she was the woman who had been in the room with the boys.
Mrs. Byrnes, in rebuttal, denied having been in the room with the boys.

Mr. Clarke called Anne Seims, a sister of the murdered boy, John H. Seims.
She was asked to stand up and she did so.

Q. When did you see her last?
A. Thursday last.

Q. What was she doing with the boys?
A. She was in the room with them.

Q. When did you last see John A. Saturday morning?

BOSWELL FOR LOUISVILLE.

CLARKE TO GO IN TO-MORROW

LESS THAN 2,500 ROOTERS OUT.

The Colonels Put in Their Best Licks in the Field to Hold New York Down.

(Special to The Evening World.)
POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, June 7.— Louisville's job lot aggregation of call riders again bobbed up vigorously at the Polo grounds this afternoon to battle with Gothams rejuvenated baseball exponents. On Wednesday it required ten hard innings for Doyle's men to crush the Colonels, and to-day Manager McLaughlin told himself that his team had an exceedingly good chance, inasmuch as Pitcher Luby had confidently told him, shortly before the game, that he had found his old speed.

In consequence, Mr. Luby, all smiles and full of fanciful ideas, was trotted forth to twirl his comrades to victory.
"Dad" Clarke was originally scheduled to serve up his choice variety to the Kentuckians, but "Dad" is to have far more honor, that of beating the leaders of the race, Pittsburgh, to-morrow. This was decided upon early in the afternoon.

Meekin's Arm Not in Shape.
Meekin was to have done the twirling to-morrow, but the few Albany boys were still in very bad condition, and he would not be able to go.

As a result of the change, the local cranks were given a chance to see what "Andy" Boswell is capable of. The ex-University of Pennsylvania pitcher was this morning and he had such good speed and control that Jack decided to give the collegian a chance.

Boswell had not pitched since the team was in Cleveland, and then his delivery was "pie" for Patzy Tebeau's people.
But he pitched a game in Louisville, however, and for the first time since he had the Colonels completely at his mercy.

The weather was perfect for ball playing, but the attendance was not flattering, not more than 2,500 people being present.

Before the game President Freeman and representatives of the Yale and Princeton teams met and discussed the prospects of playing the deciding Yale-Princeton game at Manhattan Field in case of a tie. The game will be played there if necessary.

Tally at Eastern Park.

(Special to The Evening World.) EASTERN PARK, BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 7.—Capt. Buck Ewing, leading his outfit of ball-throwers from Cincinnati, put in an appearance this afternoon to meet the Bridgeporters for the second time this week. Although the Porke-opolitans won the first game from the Bridgeporters, Capt. Griffin was bound that they would not duplicate it.

The result was that the entire Brooklyn team, including McLaughlin, the new pitcher, were out practicing as early as 2:30 o'clock, so as to be in good trim.
Mulvey Signed with Allentown.
Pat Powers, President of the Eastern League, called to see President Byrne this afternoon with the intention of securing Mulvey to pitch for the Allentown team. He was told, however, that Mulvey had signed with the Allentown team and that Hines had left for Kansas City last night, where he will play in the future.

AMERICANS BACKED THE LOSER.

80,000 People Watched the Vic-

Knew He Was Beaten.

(Special to The Evening World.) MANCHESTER, June 7.—The Prince of Wales's Florizel II. won the Manchester Cup.
Mr. Cohen's Greenlaw was second.
F. Buchanan's The Docker ran third.
Rolmont jumped into the lead at the start, closely followed by Banquet II., but the American gelding was soon headed by The Rush. The trio ran in this order past the mile post, with Rodomont forcing the pace at a good clip.

Roomont led into the straight, while Banquet II. was clearly outclassed. Rodomont II., who had been in the rear, pulled out, and soon had Rodomont and The Rush beaten. Taking the lead about one hundred yards from the finish, Florizel II. won handily from Green-law and The Docker, who finished second and third respectively. Banquet finished tenth.

The big race was witnessed by fully 80,000 people. The inclosure and grand stand, as well as the infield, were packed to suffocation, and the spectators had barely room to move.
Banquet II. was clearly outclassed. He got a fair start, but Simms, the colored jockey, who rode the American horse, knew from the moment he got away that his mount was beaten.

Florizel II. is a four-year-old brown colt, by Sir Simon, out of Green-law. He is a four-year-old brown colt,

This city was invaded by Americans to-day to see Michael P. Dwyer's Banquet II. win the Manchester Cup.
This was the first big event in which the American horse has competed, and it was but natural that the transatlantic visitors had great hopes of capturing it.
Previous to the race the Prince of Wales's Florizel II. was a dark horse, but he was clearly outclassed. He got a fair start, but Simms, the colored jockey, who rode the American
horse, knew from the moment he got
away that his mount was beaten.

There was much grumbling when it was announced, a few days ago, that
